The Greeley-Brown Ticket—Opinions of the Leading Irish Catholics.

From the New York Tablet.

The meeting of the so-called Liberal Republican Convention at Cincinnati on the 1st inst., and the nomination of Horace Greeley, editor of the New York Tribune, for President of the United States, and B. Gratz Brown for Vice-President, is an event which may possibly have considerable bearing on the future action of political parties. The most notable thing about it, however, is, that a convention composed in great part of revenue reformers and free traders should nominate for the Presidency the most ultra and fanatical protectionist in the country. It strikes us that there is anything but an adherence to principle in this, either on the part of the candidate or on that of the convention; perhaps on the part of both.

Mr. Greeley is undoubtedly a man of considerable ability in his way and of much notoriety as a journalist and a politician. He has some correct views of some questions, and some adroitness in defending them; but we can hardly conceive a man less fitted for the high office to which he is nominated. He has neither the manners nor the education, neither the solidity of character nor the breadth of mind demanded of the Chief Magistrate of a great people. He lacks sound judgment, is full of crotchets and owes all his popularity or notoriety to his eccentricities. The principles he has always defended in his journal are those of the European Revolutionists, virtually those of the infamous International and Communists. He may, for aught we know, believe himself honest, but he has a very crooked mind and never sees things as they are. "He has the crookedest mind," said the late David Henshaw to the writer, "of any man I ever saw. Why, his mind is the very quintessence of ram's horn." We once heard him give a lecture before a literary society, against Utilitarianism, and Materialism, in which he urged special attention to physical education as the remedy against them; on the principle, we suppose, that "the hair of the same dog that killed will cure." His principle is take care of capital, and capital will take care of labor.

We have read his journal more or less ever since it was founded in 1841, but we have never found in it the least indication that its author is a statesman, or even a reasonable politician. He is rash, vindictive and selfish; he withdrew from the firm of Weed, Seward & Co. because his partners did not favor his craving for office, and defeated the nomination of Seward for President at the Chicago Convention in 1860, out of revenge; for Mr. Seward was really the representative man of the Republican party. We may also, well believe that his principal grievance with President Grant is that he has not received the consideration to which he regards himself as entitled.

Mr. Greeley has shown his want of statesmanship and of principle in his readiness to seize upon every popular excitement, every radical movement, every popular insurrection, or projected reform at home and abroad, as a means of securing popularity for himself or of his party. In a word he is a professed philanthropist, and his philanthropy has been well defined, "Love of every man in general, and the hatred of every man in particular," unless, perchance, he has a black skin or a black character. All your philanthropic movements of the day trample down more good by the way them could possibly be gained by success in their schemes. Few men have exerted a more disastrous political and moral influence on the country during the last thirty years than this same Horace Greeley, and nothing could more serious by disgrace the American people than to elevate him to the Chief Magistracy of the nation.

We are no admirers of Gen Grant, either as a military man or as a statesman, and we dislike his party, but Mr. Greeley is far inferior to him, and represents the worst elements of the Republican party. He represents the worst elements of the old Whig party, and of modern Radicalism. The only points in which we agree with him is his advocacy of a speedy return to specie payments and the removal of all political disabilities imposed on the people of the States that seceded. He affects great fondness for the Irish and other naturalized citizens, but only for the purpose of winning votes for himself and his party. We know Horace Greeley too well to believe in him, and we should now prefer to see Gen. Grant re-elected to seeing him elevated to any office above that of path-master.

Yet Mr. Greeley has a considerable following, is generally believed to be honest, (probably because he makes such loud professions of honesty;) and, if he runs, he may draw off a considerable number of votes from Gen. Grant, especially considering the use the administration has made of the word Republican. He may, in a word, be

MEANS WHAT HE SAYS—Trough'out nations strong as proofs of Holy Writ' and as numerous as the sands on the seashore, were produced to prove that Dr Pierce, the proprietor of Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is in earnest and means what he says, when he offers $500 reward for any case of Catarrh which he can not cure, yet there would be some skeptics and figures who would continue to shout, Humbug! HUMBUG!! "It cannot be, because Dr Homespun says Catarrh cannot be cured" Now, this Dr Homespun is the identical good natured old fellow who honestly believes and persists in declaring that the earth is not round or spherical, but flat as a "slap jack" and does not turn over otherwise than water would all be piled out of Deacon Bascom's mill pond The astronomical science has positively demonstrated and proven that Dr Homespun is wrong in supposing the earth to be flat and stationary, and medical science is daily proving the fact that he is modest mistaken and behind the times in regard to the curability of Catarrh In short, it has been positively proven to this world never and that medical science is progressive—the opinion of Dr Homespun to the contrary notwithstanding That Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure Catarrh, thousands who have used it attest

Then buy one and use it in doubt do not stand, You will find it in drug stores all over the land.

OFFICE CHURCH RUN PIPE COMPANY, TITUSVILLE, Pa June 22, 1872

This Company, for the following reasons as excessive accumulation of oil, requiring and compelling the buying of additional tankage, and the consequent embarrassment of the business of themselves and patrons, have ordered that all oil remaining in the tanks of the company on and after July 1st, which shall have remained for a period of sixty days will be subject to a charge of one cent per barrel per day, from date of its receipt until removed J FOSTER CLARK,

Lost Health Regained.—Self neglect lays the foundation of much bodily suffering As a rule men are more solicitous to repair and preserve their houses, stock in trade and other perishable property than to repair and preserve themselves They can see when a wall requires a prop or a weak structure in girder, but appear to be unconscious of, or indifferent to, the cracks and flaws and evidences of decay in their own frail and sensitive organizations

The consequence of this want of common prudence is that thousands fall by the wayside in the prime of life every year who might have lived to enjoy a hale and hearty old age, if they had resorted to the proper means of recruiting their failing vigor at the proper time

Seeing what that famous vital tonic and invigorating elixir, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has done for countless multitudes of the enervated and broken down, and with the long unbroken record of its cures before him it seems amazing that any sufferer from premature decay, nervous weakness, dyspepsia, biliousness, chronic constipation, or disease of a remittent or intermittent character, should delay, or for one hour, to seek the aid which this tonic, regulating and invigorating properties have never failed to afford

It is no exaggeration to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the most faithful ally of nature, in her struggles with weakness and disease that mankind has any and it need cheer any invalid in the world

The Rochester Transportation Company having succeeded to the business of the Allegheny Transportation Company, and the Commonwealth Oil and Pipe Company will receive for oil should hereafter be made upon the Pennsylvania Transportation Company, who will make good any of the accepted bills of either the Allegheny Transportation Company or the Commonwealth Oil and Pipe Company

MORTAR FOR BRICK WORK

MORTAR FOR STONE WORK,

MORTAR FOR PLASTERING

FURNISHED BY

CHAS. CARSON,

And manufactured at his Mortar Mill corner of Washington St and Oil Creek R R

The ingredients for the mortar are proportioned by machinery, they are of the best quality and mixed thoroughly—far better than can be done by hand in the old fashioned and expensive way It can be supplied in Large Quantities on Short Notice.

For the last two years I have furnished this Mortar for various large buildings, among them the Parshall Block Read the following remarks

ABOUT LIME, SAND, AND PROPORTIONS FOR MORTARS

Most men know that the lime and sand are the common ingredients in mortar but that there are several varieties and qualities of each, and that when they are properly selected, proportioned and combined they will form a cement and endure for ages On the other hand, we know that the proportions of mortars as now made and used, consume lime and waste sand, and this exhibits the fact that poor mortars are in end very expensive

One thing is certain, we either do, or do not know how to make them If we do know, why they should be made, to last a denture, then let it be put in every case fact that is all we do ask It we do not know let us own the truth, and try and learn

To have that when good mortars are made that it is not the result of happy-no-no but that of knowledge, and that there is a method or rule of proportioning the ingredients is required

To make the best mortars that can be made from the materials to be used we should know how to proportion and commingle them

To make the very best we must know how to select as well as to proportion and commingle them

It is of no use to properly proport on mortar, if it is not properly prepared and thoroughly commingled Man cannot be relied upon to do it Nothing but a machine will work mortar as it ought to be

I am prepared to sell County Rights for using Mortar Machines for nearly all of Pennsylvania.

THE ORATOR OF THE DAY—The Rev Thomas K Beecher has accepted an invitation to deliver the Fourth of July address at the public celebration in this city. This is a gratifying announcement, and will constitute one of the leading attractions of the occasion. The public may rest assured that we shall be favored with an eloquent, instructive, original and entertaining address from this distinguished clergyman.

MEETING OF THE NEW YORK REFINERS—The New York refiners have been holding a private meeting for the purpose of arriving at some conclusion in regard to the propositions of the various refining districts throughout the country. They have not yet decided upon any plan but will hold another meeting to day. Representatives from Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Philadelphia and the Oil City were present. They argue that the refining capacity is too large but the plan of curtailment has yet to be developed and will be looked forward to with interest.

LAKE SHORE STRAWBERRIES have made their appearance and now we can have the delicious fruit at a reasonable price but what is far more important quite fresh from the vines. Mr George Smith the veteran fruit man of the Lake Shore region, who always comes to this city with the first shipment of strawberries and stays through summer and into autumn, or as long as he can sell a crate of grapes, put in an appearance last week, and on Saturday left in our office a dozen quarts of the finest berries we have had this year. He will please accept our thanks. We do not object to being remembered in this way.

THE MAIN BRICK SEWER ON PINE STREET—Messrs Middaugh and Kinsley, the new contractors for the unfinished main brick sewer which will extend from the junction of Pine and Diamond streets through Pine to Monroe and up Monroe to the centre of Main street, commenced operations yesterday morning. The contract has been let for nearly $9,000, the distance being about 2,900 feet. The work is expected to be completed on or before the first of November next. It will give employment to nearly 100 men. The contractors are expert need in their business and the work promises to be prosecuted in a substantial manner and with due dispatch.

The Picnic of Rose Croix Commandery to Chautauqua Lake

The Commandery assembled in full regalia with 500 Sir Knights, including invited guests, at the Passenger Depot at 7 30 a m yesterday morning, and took a special train for Mayville. The party was accompanied by Coleman's brass and string band in their new and georgeous uniform. The steamer Jamestown, which had been chartered for the occasion, lay in waiting at the Mayville dock, and the Commandery proceeded from Mayville to the Commercial club grounds at Long point, the use of which had been generously tendered by Henry Harley, Esq. The grounds are beautifully located, the promontory extending nearly a quarter of a mile into the lake. Alongside the wharf lay numerous yachts and sail boats for the use of pleasure seekers. The ball room, 60 by 130 feet, with wings for cooking and dining room overhead, stands on the ground. This the Commandery made their headquarters for the day. At one o'clock a review and inspection took place by Eminent Commander Dunham, after which the Commandery broke ranks and proceeded to enjoy themselves in dancing, bathing, fishing and general pleasure seeking.

At five o'clock the party returned to Mayville where a substantial dinner had been prepared at the Chautauqua House. The accommodations at the resort proved were miserably inadequate for the party. The Oil Creek road however furnished a special train which carried more than sufficient for the purpose. The excursion is pronounced a brilliant success by all who participated in the festivities. The city reached at 12 o'clock last night tired and sleepy and thoroughly satisfied with the day's recreation. Owing to the crowd of matter in our columns we are unable to give a more extended account of the most enjoyable picnic of the season.

Meeting of the Gun and Rod Club

The meeting of this club, to hear the reports of committees and for the election of officers for the coming year, was held on Friday evening at Dr Coon's office, with a good attendance. John Fertig was called to the chair, and Arnold Burges appointed secretary.

Mr Burges reported as chairman of the Committee on Constitution and By Laws and the report was accepted, and the name of the Gun and Rod Club adopted by the meeting.

The Committee on Rooms was continued.

The meeting then proceeded to an election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, John Fertig; Vice President, J W Osmobee; Secretary, W M Coombs; Corresponding Secretary, Arnold Burges; Treasurer, H B Cullum; Board of Managers, C W Isham, Chairman, A V M Sprague, J H Winsor.

The secretary read a list of members containing thirty five names, and, upon motion, the list was closed, and all in are members will be elected at the regular meetings.

The meeting then adjourned till the third Friday in July.

Our Streets.

Editor Herald:

The corners of Spring and Franklin streets were never in a more impassable condition than they are to day. The Gas Company succeeded in tearing up the streets in so clumsy a manner that they were blockaded for nearly two weeks. Now that the work on the corners is finished, they have left a series of hills and deep ruts which are a disgrace to the city. The operation of paving Franklin street has been long and tedious, and we may have that street torn up for two weeks longer. The paving of Spring street, however, has not yet commenced and it is impossible to say whether the work will be completed in two weeks or two months. Are we to have Spring street remain as the Gas Company left it, until this wooden pavement is laid? There are few cities which would tolerate such a state of affairs for a single day without notifying the parties who tore up the street to leave it in the same condition they found it before they commenced.

The object of the meeting having been explained by the president, Mr M N Allen moved that an invitation be extended to the gentlemen of the Press, and that a committee of five be appointed by the chair to devise a plan for the entertainment of the guests, and report to-morrow night. Adopted.

Messrs M N Allen, H C Bloss, H I Pickering, J A Cadwallader and J G Benton were appointed as that committee.

The meeting then adjourned to meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

He has just established a trunk factory in the same building, and is prepared to turn out every species of work to order. The best and most experienced workmen are employed. He also manufactures harness of every description, from team to the finest grade. He keeps on hand a full stock of steel goods, and in fact everything required by horsemen. Give him a call.

FOURTH DAY—FRENCH DAY

BOSTON, June 21, 1872

The weather was extremely warm—nevertheless there was a fine, cool breeze in the Coliseum.

A large number came pouring in as soon as the doors were opened. By 2 o'clock the streets were packed with the crowds, all moving towards the great attraction. The programme for the day opened with the 'Gloria," from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass,' which met the warm approval of the audience, followed by the 'Festival Oration." Next, Madame Emma Rudersdorff sang "Let the Bright Seraphim,' with trumpet obligato by Mr M Arbuckle, which added much to the rich song. The fourth anvil chorus was rendered with greater effect than on any previous day. With the full chorus, the bequest of artists, organ, orchestra, cannon and bell accompaniment the cannon coming in in better time. The effect was slendid.

No one could keep from applauding, and after Gilmore had made his obeisance two or three times without appeasing the masses he ordered back the Firemen and it was repeated.

Herr Johann Strauss then appeared and directed "Grand Concert Waltz" (1,001 nights). The young people could not keep their feet still and it bothered the old ones to keep them within bounds. After long and loud cheering he came upon the stand with his violin, playing with the orchestra one of his fine pieces. The audience were not satisfied until it was repeated. Then came the chorus, "The Heavens are Telling" (creation) by Haydn, one of the finest and most enjoyable of the choruses yet sung, which seemed to fill the entire house with delight. Then came a piano solo arranged and performed by Mr James M Webb.

PART II

The band of the Garde Republicaine, of Paris, came forward amid tremendous cheers. They met with a louder reception than any band had as yet. One reason might be because of the larger audience. They did not commence with the piece on the programme, but started off with "Hail Columbia," amid the greatest of uproar. Then followed the overture to "William Tell." It was magnificent.

Then followed the beautiful French National hymn, "La Marseillaise," by the full orchestra, chorus, organ and bands, with bell and cannon accompaniment. It over it was greeted with applause on the earth it was on this occasion. Soon Gilmore appeared upon the stand and it was repeated with surprise on. Then the Garde Republicaine Band struck up "Yankee Doodle," followed by the "Star Spangled Spanner,' and "La Marseillaise." Never in America has the latter been so ably rendered. Anyone who was not there cannot conceive of the enjoyment manifested.

Next followed the 'Soldier's Chorus,' from Faust, by the operatic chorus, orchestra and full chorus. It was given in grand style.

Gounod's "Nazareth" followed. The closing hymn, Dr Lowell Mason's 'Watchman, tell us of the Night," directed by Dr Tomlye, was rendered with the greatest effect. In the last verse the cannons helped to mark the time and impressed upon the minds of all that they must come once more. So closed the greatest and best programme of any day as yet. There is a great amount of interest manifested by the greatest musicians who have assembled from all parts of the world in regard to the two leading bands, the French and English. We shall to-morrow have the pleasure of listening to the English band again, and they will doubtless strive to change the impression in their favor. Most of the Mendelssohn Society spent the day enjoying the beauties of the sea shore, fishing, bathing, etc. All are having a great many favors extended, which will leave a pleasant impression on our minds of this trip to Boston. We owe a great many thanks to the gentlemanly managers of the "Bureau of Accommodation" for the pleasant and home like quarters of our party.

FIFTH DAY—AUSTRIAN DAY

A few minutes ago in the press room here I was interrupted by a violin played by Josie Lambert aged five, of Brooklyn, N Y. His playing was greeted with loud applause by many of the members of the Press present. His playing was rare for one so young. He will probably play to morrow. The Press room is 50x100 and at the west end the Western Union Telegraph Office has a room and there is a branch of the Post office where all accommodations are to be found. The walls of the Press room are richly hung with oil paintings and chromos and there is a long table upon one side where are found all the Boston papers, Prang's map of Boston, J R Osgood & Co's illustrated guide of Boston and vicinity showing the beauties of this fine city. There are toilet rooms connecting with this room and adjoining the great chorus room. Five long tables are covered with all the writing material one can wish for, and bulletin boards show the market reports of New York. Now at my left Celia Logan, sister of Olive, is sitting corresponding for a West ern paper. The New York Herald is represented by three reporters. We have just had our picture taken. About 280 of the best reporters of this country and many of the foreign press are with us. I know my picture was poor because of a country reporter fevered with excitement and eager to get off his imperfect report to his weekly paper. In five minutes we are to try again. Each reporter is striving to get in a prominent place so as to obtain a good picture. Your humble servant is tall and will be seen in the background.

Notwithstanding the intense heat of the day the Coliseum was well filled. The performances were very pleasing, and the afternoon programme was excellent, commencing with Keller's national hymn, 'Angel of Peace, which the chorus performed with precision and marked success. "Kaiser," Westmayer's overture, followed and was beautiful in itself and admirably rendered. The grand chorus, "See, the Conquering Hero Comes," was next given and great credit is due to the female voices for the perfect time kept. Amid the hearty outburst of applause, Madame Lichtner appeared, and even the chorus and orchestra could not keep from applauding this truly great and sweet singer. She sang from "Lennart," beginning with the movement in B flat major. It displayed her great voice and vocal capacity. Soon after she appeared in company with Herr Lisst Abt, and under his direction they rendered one of his fine compositions with magnificent success. Next came Mr Arbuckle with his cornet amid much cheering. He performed Beriot's seventh air and variation, and in response to an encore played "The Last Rose of Summer," much to the satisfaction of the listeners. Herr Strauss next made his appearance. No time is lost by him. Hardly do you see him coming before he is upon the stand. Attracting the attention of his orchestra he directed with overwhelming success the pleasing waltz "Blue Danube." The applause was so great he could not get away until he had played again. To the delight of all, he performed "The Pizzicato Polka." Now all were eager to hear the Band of the Grenadier Guards, and as they appeared the excitement was intense. Their playing was considered finer than that of their first appearance. They commenced with Rossini's overture to 'Semiramide,' and then played one of Meyerbeers' compositions. No let up yet for the Englishmen, so a number of pieces were preformed in order to please all. It seemed that if all but one of the musicians were stopped the remaining one would be performing his part in a manner pleasing to those who listened. If ever music was rendered by instruments in perfect perfection it has been by the English and French bands. Gilmore took the stand with Mad Rudersdorff who sang "God save the Queen," and with the assistance of the orchestra, chorus, organ, bell and cannon accompaniment, it was performed with greater success than on Tuesday. The band then played the "Star Spangled Banner" and the audience and chorus rose to their feet and applauded. No sooner had the band finished than they started up 'St Patrick's Day' to the delight of the Irish countrymen. They also played "Auld Lang Syne." The chorus "Keepers Awake," Miss Arabella Goddard's piano solo, the sextette from "Lucia," 'Farewell to the Forest" and the Hymn "Coronation" concluded the concert.

"HOBGOBLIN"

An Oil Bear.—We Cannot Defeat Over-production.

Editor Herald:

Crude to day sold at $3 75. Why? No other reason than over production.

What must we do with this great and constantly increasing over production?

On this question we invite carefully prepared answers from all parties interested. This is a question of the most absorbing interest to every class of our citizens. In saying our citizens, we mean the 75,000 inhabitants of Oildom.

How much coal are we burning at our wells to day? From several different channels we estimate it at close to five thousand tons (5,000) weekly. Let every single producer ponder on those figures. Five thousand tons, average value $7 00 per ton, this is just so much money sunk. How shall we save it?

Let us burn oil instead. Large numbers of our producers say they have already tried it and find coal is cheaper. Granted. Very many, we know, have tried it, but how? Why, in the old fashioned way of dripping slowly into pans on which a jet of steam was sometimes thrown. This was found to use from one and a half to two barrels of oil per day and of course was too wasteful, and reasoning from it as kind of experience, almost everybody condemns the use of oil as a fuel.

Cannot oil be burnt more cheaply? It most assuredly can. It is now no longer an experiment, but a fixed fact, and is now largely practiced at Philadelphia and at St Louis. At both of these cities to day large iron works are using no other fuel than crude petroleum, tar or pitch. The Girard Iron Works of Philadelphia to day testifies that it is a saving to them of over fifty per cent over the use of coal, which there costs only $4 00 per ton. Our producers are too practical and far seeing men for us to need more than to give them a hint. They will very quickly look to the protection of their interests.

Now, what would be the result of adopting the best plans, after giving this subject the most searching investigation? Simply this. The producers would use at their wells at least one thousand barrels of oil daily. It would be presumptuous in us to make all these calculations growing out of this one fact.

DIXY

Titusville, June 21st

THE State Editorial Association which holds its summer meeting at Erie this week have included a trip to the Oil Regions in their programme, and at a meeting held last evening at the Oil Exchange rooms it was resolved to extend the hospitalities of the city to them so far as may be consistent with their arrangements. A committee was appointed to prepare a plan to enlist general co operation and to communicate with the Association on the subject. The editors are no doubt a wide awake and enlightened body of men, full of curiosity to see what great things Nature has done for the happy valley, and of course sure pleased to the charms of scenery, appreciative of all marks of material enterprise, they will probably carry away with them very lively, pleasurable impressions of our flourishing city. It is idle to expect secrecy on them, for if they take notes they can hardly fail to print 'em.

THE New York store advertisement reads like a Fourth of July programme and will probably be as much like fire works to see the rare and costly array, and to accept some of the bargains offered. These times of clearing out stock are like auctions. The merchant expects to make sacrifice. The summer has hardly come before it is gone, and Fashion is more capricious than the seasons and has something new for every month in the year. Are you warm, or cold, or rich, or poor, a gay belle, or a sober matron, do you wear calico, or silk, now is your time. Read the Fourth of July programme of Andrews New York Store.

DR JENNINGS, of Fredonia, N Y was found drowned in a pond at Columbus, Pa, on Saturday morning last. He left the hotel, where he had been stopping for a short time previous, quite early in the morning, and not returning to break fast, search was instituted and his body found in the pond. He had neither hat nor coat on, and his fishing-rod was found near by. It is supposed by some that he committed suicide, and by others that he slipped and fell into the water and was accidentally drowned. He was an estimable citizen, and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS OF THE SAENGERBUND CONCORDIA.—At the quarterly election of the Saengerbund Concordia, held last evening at Duff's Hall, Henry Friedenberg was elected President, George Habernig Vice President, Tony Mower, Treasurer and Charles Bremberg Secretary. Professor Emil Liller, of Sandusky, was also appointed Leader.

THE New York Tribune, with heartless ingratitude, calls the Mendelssohn Society of Titusville "orange suckers." This is a "pealer," when, according to the Tribune not long ago, Greeley is "sweeping everything before him" in these parts. It is in this way that the musical critic of the Eastern vent their spleen at Titusville superiority in the art of singing.

NOTICE.—All organizations or bodies intending to take part in the procession on the Fourth are requested to send in their names and probable numbers at once.

Our Pyrotechnic Display on the Fourth.

One of the grandest features of our coming Fourth of July celebration will be the display of fire-works. The committee sent an order for them to a Buffalo house a day or two since. The fire-works will embrace a general assortment of holiday pieces and some new local designs. The time in exhibiting them will occupy at least two hours, and probably the best site that can be obtained is in front of the Stowell Grove, on the Barnsdall Hill, head of Franklin street. The Buffalo Express has got the news already and takes a becoming interest in our success, like a near relative. It gives a first class notice of Volger, Riebling & Co, and says:

"This go-ahead firm are as usual taking a foremost position in their preparations for Independence Day." They have an immense and varied stock of fire works, from the common crackers to expensive pieces of elegant pyrotechnic designs. So much satisfaction was expressed by the City Council and citizens generally with Volger, Riebling & Co's display of fire-works on Niagara Square last Fourth, that the committee having the matter in charge have awarded the contract for the public fire-works exhibition to this popular house. The programme of pieces to be shown next July Fourth, which bids fair to outvie any previous efforts in that line, we expect to publish in a day or two. Volger, Riebling & Co are believed to be the largest dealers in pyrotechnics, in addition to their general extensive variety store business west of New York. They have contracted for the Corporation's fire-works display for the coming Fourth of July, with Erie City, Pa, Titusville Pa, and other cities in Michigan and Ohio. The Titusville authorities are negotiating with V R & Co to close the exhibition at that place with a very costly and magnificent display of pyrotechnic art, consisting of an extensive arrangement of fire-work so combined as to form a local motive, to dart and two cars, emblazoned with a brilliant display of the words "Go to Buffalo." Success to Volger, Riebling & Co and honor to Titusville!"

This Cut illustrates the manner of Using

DR. PIERCE'S

Fountain Nasal Injector,

OR

DOUCHE.

This instrument is especially designed for the perfect application of

DR SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.

It is the only form of instrument ever invented with which fluid medicine can be carried thoroughly and perfectly applied to all parts of the nasal passages and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith in which the catarrhal discharges most frequently exist and from which the catarrhal discharge cannot be dislodged. Want of success in treating Catarrh heretofore has arisen mainly from the impossibility of applying remedies to those cavities and chambers by any of the ordinary methods This obstacle in the way of a cure is entirely overcome by the use of the Douche. In using this instrument the Fluid is carried by its own weight (no snuffing forcing or pumping being required) in one nostril in a full stream flowing strong from the other nostril, the nasal passages passed over and thoroughly cleansed, the other nostril and throat are connected with the other nostril and throat and thoroughly cleansed. Full and explicit directions accompany each instrument. When used with this instrument Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the most severe cases of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications.

Symptoms of Catarrh. Dull nasal headache, discharge, chills, nervous irritation, loss of smell, taste, hearing, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell, taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of memory, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, including Clergyman's sore throat, &c. Only a few of the symptoms are likely to be present in any one catarrhal case.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, and accompanied with the constitutional treatment which is recommended in the pamphlet that wraps each bottle of Remedy, is a perfect specific for this disease. For this disease and the loss of sense of smell $500 reward for a case he cannot cure. The Remedy is mild and pleasant to the taste, not offensive to the smell, and contains no poisons. The Catarrh Remedy is sold 50 cents. Douche at 60 cents by all Druggists, or either will be sent by prepaid express on receipt of 60 cents. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Sole Proprietor BUFFALO N Y
